Take Stock in Children is a not for profit program that helps children from low income families achieve academic and personal success through a postsecondary college scholarship and mentor program led by a local partnership of schools, businesses, agencies and individuals

The Denis V. Cooper Foundation - 'Wishes for Heroes'... understands the challenges, pride, and joy of being a military family. For today, tomorrow, and years to come, we will strive to meet the changing needs of service members and their families.

Our goal is to enhance the quality of life for military veterans and their families. We are dedicated to restoring a sense of self, restoring the family unit, and restoring hope for our military heroes and their families.
